PROPERTY.

Pursuant to a certain deed of trust, in which default has been made, the undersigned trustees will, on TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1912, at 11 o'clock A. M., sell at public auction, in front of the courtheuse at Lexington, Va., that valuable preperty known as the Cold Sulphur Springs, situated in Rockbridge County, Va., about two miles from the town of Goahen, on the main line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. This property was for many years successfully operated by Dr. J. S. Craig as a summer resort. Several years ago the hotel was destroyed by fire, and it has not been rebuilt: there remains, however, an attractive cottage, which, with stables and other outbuildings, would make an ideal summer home. If the hotel were rebuilt its prestige as a summer resort could be speedily restored. The land embraces about 177 acres. For terms and other particulars, ad-wide.

It is rarely that property of this character is offered at auction, and you can come with the full assurance that it will be sold to the highest bid-

ms: Cash, but more liberal terms
